

TRANSFER CREDITS AND HOURS

TRANSFER CREDIT

American University of Antigua College of Medicine does not grant credit for prior learning or by examination. Acceptance of transfer credit is at the discretion of the AUA Admissions Committee. American University of Antigua College of Medicine only accepts transfer credits under the following conditions:

- The transfer credits are from a duly accredited school of medicine.
- The transfer credits are equivalent to those offered in the American University of Antigua College of Medicine curriculum (course description and credit hours).

Transfer of credits received from American University of Antigua College of Medicine to another institution is solely at the discretion of the accepting institution. No guarantee of transfer is made or implied by American University of Antigua College of Medicine.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Course Range:

5000–6999 are associated with Basic Sciences.

- 5000–5999 being Academic Year I
- 6000–6800 being Academic Year II

The individual breakdown of the four-digit course number

- 1st integer represents professional level course
- 2nd integer represents semester number where course belongs
- 3rd integer represents academic year
- 4th integer represents course sequence

6850 to 7100 are associated with 5th semester.

- All exams and courses are associated in this range.

7110 to 7200 are associated with clinical core clerkships.

7200 to 9000 are associated with clinical elective clerkships.